In a picturesque setting, you'll discover a place where life can be lived at your pace with your friends and family, enjoying the things you like to do in a comfortable, stress-free environment. And it's a place where every day is truly "your day," lived your way.

This is an assisted living community that feels just like home – a place that's far from the hassles of ownership and convenient to the people you love to see and the places you love to visit. It's a place where you can spend your days free of worry knowing that 24 hour professional assistance is always at the ready should it ever be needed.

We encourage all Veterans or Widows of Veterans to call for more information about our community and our Veterans program. But hurry, this offer expires on June 30, 2010.

Call 1-888-261-8178 today for more information.
